

Program: craft certificate in entrepreneurial agriculture

Duration: 2 years

Location: Kenya school of agriculture Nyeri

Tuition fee:

Course description.

The craft certificate course in entrepreneurial agriculture is intended equip the trainee with relevant knowledge skills and attitude to enable trainees to work in agricultural establishments and related industries.

The course aims at imparting competencies required to safely operate and effectively supervise entrepreneurial agriculture production process. The course is also intended to lay a foundation for further studies in agriculture.

The certificate in entrepreneurial agriculture is packaged in 2 modules

1. Foundation to crop and entrepreneurial agriculture
2. Livestock and resource management.

The course intends to lay a foundation for further studies in agriculture.

What will you be taught?

- To acquire knowledge, skills and attitude that will enable him/her to venture into self-employment in agricultural enterprises and processing of agricultural produce.
- Acquire skills that will enable her/him to share and communicate agricultural information and policies.
- Apply skills required in problem solving, involving collection and analysis of data and implementation of solutions accurately and efficiently
- Utilize and sustain the available natural resources
- Communicate effectively on matters related to agricultural enterprises and environment
- Apply the principle of planning and management for sustainable production

Modules include

- Entrepreneurship & communication skills
- Mathematics. Science
- farm management
- Economics & Business plan
- Agricultural marketing & resource management

Graduation

After graduating from general agriculture, you can work in a public or private agricultural enterprise, or a commercial/non-commercial NGO. You will have developed skills in problem solving, communicating effectively and planning & management.

Possible jobs include:

- Agricultural media and corporate communications

- Specialized agriculture-related jobs in public and private industry
- Marketing and sales for agricultural input suppliers and output buyers
- Agricultural research jobs
- Agricultural education jobs